OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 27 May 1977

25X1

1. [ ] LIAISON Bob Turner, Legislative Assistant to Senator Robert P. Griffin (R., Mich.), called and asked for unclassified statements, by the North Koreans, on their need to take over South Korea. I told Turner I would check and be back in touch with him. FBIS has been notified.

Turner also asked for a copy of "The National Basic Intelligence Factbook." I said I would send him one.

3. [ ] BRIEFING Arrangements were finalized with Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Subcommittee on Intelligence and Military Application of Nuclear Energy, for [ ] DD/IC/OPBD, and other members of the Intelligence Community Staff, to brief Hogan at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, 1 June, in Hogan's office, to cover in detail those programs listed in the Director's letter to Chairman Melvin Price (D., Ill.), of the full Committee, which have been cut by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. The briefing was requested by Hogan since the House Armed Services Committee will be readdressing itself to the programs prompted by the Director's letter.

4. [ ] LIAISON At the request of [ ] C/P&CS, [ ] I called Fred Flott, Consultant, House Select Committee on Narcotics Abuse and Control, and arranged for [ ] and I to meet with Flott at 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, 31 May, in Room 2463 of the Rayburn Building. [ ] requested the meeting to discuss reactions abroad to Chairman Lester L. Wolff's (D., N.Y.) recent trip to the Far East and to provide to Flott, for the Chairman, sanitized intelligence reports on these reactions.

10. [ ] LIAISON At the request of [ ] OGC, I called Ken Bernstein, House Ways and Means Committee staff, and inquired as to whether the Committee had published any reports of its studies on pension plans within U.S. Government agencies as required by the Private Pension Plan Law of 1974. He said that much research is being conducted on this subject; however, few reports have been issued to date. He suggested that the Agency contact Roger Thomas, at the Department of Labor, who is an expert in determining whether retirement programs within the U.S. Government come under the provisions of the 1974 law. [ ] was advised.

11. [ ] LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, and alerted him to the request of the House Armed Services Committee for a paper assessing the North Korean military forces and their capabilities and intentions to attack South Korea if the United States pulls out. I also informed him that Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.) has requested that members of his staff be given a net assessment briefing on the military situation in Korea. I explained that the Committee's request was in process but Representative Aspin's request was still under advisement.

14. [ ] LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, on the draft letter on the role of the Ambassador, reviewed our position and requested that the NSC weigh in. I promised to provide him our material. He said it would help if we could also make our input independently.

15. [ ] LIAISON Bill Jordan, on the staff of the Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Senate Appropriations Committee, called with reference to my note on the topics we plan to cover in the 7 June briefing and it was fine. In response to his query, I said we would be prepared to respond to questions on the political situation in [ ] Congressional Support Staff, has been advised.

18. [ ] LIAISON Mike Maloof, in the office of Senator Robert P. Griffin (R., Mich.), called to determine the exact number of Cuban medical teams that are serving outside of Cuba and the number of countries in which they are involved, referencing a recent Baltimore Sun article.

19. [ ] LIAISON Telephoned John W. Nields, Jr., Chief Counsel, House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, to advise him that he now has a security clearance through Top Secret for access to CIA material, and to advise him further that certain of the staff personnel have background investigations which can no longer be considered effective under DCID 1/14. Having gotten his clearance, Mr. Nields wished to begin reviewing CIA material as quickly as practicable. We made an appointment for 2 June for his briefing for compartmented clearances and for 6 June for him to begin his review of relevant material.

ADDENDUM TO JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 27 May 1977

(Unclassified - RG) LIAISON Organized and attended a briefing on the CIA for Brigham Young University Congressional Interns in Room 1A07, Headquarters. Admiral Turner offered a welcome and opening remarks followed by [REDACTED] OTR, who briefed on the CIA and answered questions. Sixty-two interns attended. Two members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff also attended. The questioning was polite and aggressive. In general, the session was very well received. The interns were appreciative that the DCI took time out to meet with them and complimented [REDACTED] on his presentation.
